Natural Result.

It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take a medicine into the system that will remove the cause of sick ness, and the illness leaves of itself. Dyspepsia, indigestion, sick-headache and biliousness, have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove the other symptoms are no more. There is one cure for this that all druggists sell for 25 cents per box, it is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They get right at the beginning of the diseases and make the cure by taking away the cause of it. We will send a small box free by mail, or a large box on receipt of 25 cents. Address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, 128 S. Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

CURE FOR HICCUGHS.

Simple Scientific Remedy That Gives Immediate Relief.

An attack of hiccoughs brings its victim less sympathy perhaps than almost any other ailment, the main reason being that, except in very rare cases, it is not attended with fatal results and that in most cases it attacks otherwise healthy persons. Still, it is one of the most annoying and most obstinate of difficulties. While the effort to cure it is being made it generally disappears, yet it resists the most vigorous effort of the will to control its vagaries.

A hiccough is a quick, involuntary, inspiratory movement of the diaphragm, brought suddenly to a stop by an involuntary closing of the glottis. The muscles that control these two portions of the human anatomy are incessant workers. They wait on every breath without being guided by the will and even work while we sleep. While they do their duty life passes, tranquil, calm and pacific, but if for any cause a disturbing element enters into their balldwork they rebel, are beyond the control of the will and, having no guide, as it were, run away, and like any runaway, have no care for the damage done. The effort to remove the disturber is the cause of the hiccough, and the following method of treatment arrests these muscles in their wild escapade, brings them back to their duties, and, like the patient servants they are, they resume their work and life becomes as placid as before.

First, expel all the air from your lungs very, very quickly. The portion of the body they attend to is, as it were, collapsed, and now commences the next and concluding part of the cure.

Second, commence to fill your lungs with air, but do so very slowly, but steadily. Pucker your mouth, and if possible leave an opening of your lips no larger than a pin, and through this inhale the air. Fill your lungs, raise your arms and throw out your chest, and when you are full these muscles resume their regular duties and the hiccoughs are gone.—Brooklyn Eagle.

MAN AS SEEN BY NOVELISTS

Success serves to sweeten the average man; unsuccess is the herculean test of heroes.—Eden Philpotts.

He who does good on the spur of the moment usually sows a seed of dissension in the trench of time.—Seton Merriman.

A woman without illusions is the dearest and most difficult thing to manage possible.—Author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden."

Have something to say; say it; stop talking; give fools the first and women the last word; the meat's always in the middle of the sandwich.—G. H. Lorimer.

Happiness falls to our share in separate detached bits, and those of us who are wise content ourselves with these broken fragments.—Beatrice Harraden.

Noisy fellows are always wedded to their own opinions, weak fellows to the opinions of others. The perfect man, conscious of his intellectual attitude, is content with aspirations.—Harold Begbie.

The Memory of Ants.

A remarkable fact in the physiology of ants is their memory. The number of ants that go to make a nest is enormous, yet they are all personally known to each other and are able to recognize members of their own community after a prolonged absence. Sir John Lubbock kept one of these remarkably intelligent insects from its home for a year. On its return the relatives from whom it had been so cruelly separated recognized their wanderer and welcomed it back, while an ant introduced from another nest was most inhospitably treated, even murdered and thrown out.

Conditional.

A Scotsman was on his deathbed, and his friends persuaded him to forgive a neighbor with whom he had had a standing feud for some years.

The neighbor came to the dying man's bedside.

After they had shaken hands and made peace the Scotsman exclaimed:

"If I get better, Donald, remember all this goes for naught."

She Settled It.

"Sir," began the youth, "I have come to ask for your daughter's hand in—"

"No, sir," snorted her father. "You can't have her! What could possibly have prompted you to ask?"

"Why—er—she did, sir!"

"Oh, that's different! Also, that settles it!"—Philadelphia Press.

Anxious.

Alice—How did you feel while Fred was proposing to you?

Mildred—Two or three times I felt like supplying the words I knew he was groping for, but of course that wouldn't have been the thing to do at all.

OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right.

That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't.

Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be.

We use the whole oil in Scott's Emulsion because the great reputation of cod liver oil as a food and medicine was made by using it in this way. Substitutes in the shape of wines, cordials, extracts, etc., should be carefully avoided.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 209 Pearl Street, New York.

The Filters Fill

At all druggists and grocers, 30 cents.

Human kidneys are but human filters. They become clogged from overwork and neglect, and refuse to do their work. Email Filters—Hamburg Tea—removes the obstruction, gives them healthy action and purifies the blood.

The New Years Dance at Half-moon Bay Was a Success.
A Fierce Dog Fight.

HALF-MOON BAY, January 8.—Cold frosty weather on the coast the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Francis visited friends in San Francisco.

Dr. McCracken of Pescadero passed through here in his automobile last Sunday en route to attend the meeting of Supervisors at Redwood.

Mrs. M. Seymour went to the city last Thursday to visit her son, Captain John Seymour.

Miss Lottie Shoults, who was suffering from a severe cold, is now much better.

Miss Edna Hatch went to the city last week to visit friends.

The New Years dance was a grand success—the music was furnished by the famous Tapoca band and floor management was under the care of Edward Gonzalez and it is needless to say he looked after every one and saw that all had partners and also had a good time. The supper was served at the Occident hotel and was pronounced one of the best ever given at a dance. Among those present who were noted by our reporter were Misses Delia Corcoran, Edna and Clara Hatch, Mary and Annie McGovern, Belle and Vera Valerio, Lizzie and Magde Albrecht, Florence Higgins, Edna Schuyler, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Quinlan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Quinlan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Sopher and Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Valerio; Howard Sano of San Jose, George Debenedetti of John Fries, Alvin Hatch, Jules Jara, Everett Schuyler, William Whitman and many others.

The Fountain Oil Co.'s derrick, which was buried a few weeks ago has been replaced by a new outfit and is working every day.

Mr. Parker, of the High Gravity Oil Co. has very good indications and expects another gusher, but hopes it will not do the damage the last one did at the Fountain well.

Tom Shoults is up from Santa Barbara on a visit to his parents at Purissima.

R. H. Hatch is making extensive improvements on his ranch south of town. Mr. Kerr, president of the Fountain Oil Co., was down from the city looking after his interests. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kerr.

Jos. Debenedetti made a business trip to South City last Tuesday afternoon.

W. J. Savage of Colma spent New Years on the coast.

Mrs. Spencer of Sacramento is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Shoults.

WOODSIDE CHIPS.

WOODSIDE, January 8.—Mr. Raber, the well known tenor artist of Palo Alto, had quite an experience here last Thursday morning. It appears he is the proud owner of a well-bred bulldog that has won ribbons at several dog shows. The animal it seems, is a fierce fighter and can whip any dog in the six adjoining counties. The dog accompanied his master to Dalve's Hotel, where Raber left the canine in charge of another party while he went to breakfast. He had scarcely begun his meal when he heard a great rumbling in the barroom of the hotel. Hastening to the scene of the noise, he discovered to his great chagrin that his dog was wallowing Mr. Dalve's pet canine. Before he could separate the ferocious beast from his prey he had done his deadly work in killing the hotel keeper's dog. Raber felt he was up against it but what could he do? He was threatened with arrest, in fact a warrant was sworn out, but before he was served with it, Mrs. Dalve, who was made acquainted with the facts, and it being shown to her that Raber was an innocent party, she allowed the entire matter to drop, though she much regrets the loss of her pet animal. When ever Raber comes this way again he had better leave his bulldog home or else notify us a day or two before hand that he is coming and a good fighter will be secured that will meet the laurels from his pugacious champion.

Mr. Younger is a Stanford graduate and also attended medical college for some time, but was compelled because of his eyes to give up study and has therefore gone on the road for a wholesale grocery firm of San Francisco.

The Robin Hood circle women of Woodcraft had installation of officers Tuesday evening, as follows: Mrs. A. Lowenstein, past guardian; neighbor; Mrs. C. Lockner, guardian; Mrs. L. S. Bean, adviser; Mrs. S. Tustin, attendant; Miss A. Tribolet, magister; Mrs. Stott, inner sentinel; Mrs. P. Hexter, outer sentinel; Mrs. Geo. Winter, clerk; Mrs. F. West, banker; Miss B. Wilson, Capt. of guards. After installation all were entertained at a fine banquet.

Dr. Frederick A. Stahl, who was at one time a leading figure in the medical profession of San Francisco and superintendent of the City and County Hospital, took his own life by inhaling illuminating gas Tuesday last. While waiting for his death Dr. Stahl calmly wrote a letter to his wife, who is well known here, as she formerly visited friends as a girl and was Miss Rose Clark. She also resided for some time at the Tremont house several years ago.

Rev. Father Conlan left Sunday evening on a one-year's leave of absence. He will remain in San Francisco until the middle of February, when, his health permitting, he will sail for Europe to spend some time in England and Ireland. He will also visit Paris and other capitals of Europe before returning. Father White of San Francisco is to have charge of the parish during Father Conlan's absence. Father Hughes, who has been the popular assistant for some months past, has been appointed assistant at St. Patrick's church in San Francisco.

Thursday evening District Deputy C. D. Hayward installed the following officers: C. D. Hayward, past president; F. H. Stalter, president; Dr. Meek, first vice-president; A. Liguori, second vice-president; T. F. Curran, third vice-president; F. W. Glennan, Marshal; C. A. Lovie, recording secretary; J. F. Johnston, financial secretary; A. D. Walsh, trustee. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the members of the parlor presented C. D. Hayward and A. D. Walsh, the two retiring officers, each with handsome gold pins emblematic of the society, as a slight recognition of the invaluable services rendered the parlor in the past. Both responded feelingly. The doors of the parlor were then thrown open to the invited guests and the Native Daughters to take part in a euchre card-party. The contest was spirited and resulted in a victory for J. F. Johnston and Mrs. J. W. Glennan.
